

Newfoundland & Labrador

College of Social Workers

Message from the Chair, NLCSW Board of Directors: Announcement of the New Executive Director & Registrar

The Newfoundland & Labrador College of Social Workers is pleased to announce the appointment of Philip (Phil) O'Neil MSW, RSW as the new Executive Director and Registrar effective March 25, 2024.

Phil's social work career spans over thirty years with progressive leadership positions in the provincial health care system, Veteran's Affairs Canada, and the Department of National Defense. He has held senior leadership positions in social work and health care.

Phil has been the Associate Registrar at NLCSW since 2017. During his tenure, his depth of regulatory knowledge and leadership have advanced the regulatory processes of NLCSW. Prior to this position, he was the Professional Practice Consultant for Social Work at NL Health Services.

Phil has an extensive knowledge of the social work profession, professional practice environments and social work regulation. He is a leader with strategic vision and demonstrated commitment to regulation and collaboration. He is a recipient of the CEO's Award of Excellence in Leadership, Eastern Health and the Veteran's Affairs Canada Award of Excellence in Leadership.

The board of directors of NLCSW extends gratitude to the Hiring Committee for leading a thoughtful recruitment process to ensure a smooth transition to replace Lisa Crockwell who will be retiring from the position.

On behalf of the board of directors, we extend sincere congratulations to Phil and look forward to working together to advance the vision, mission, and initiatives of our organization.

Sincerely,

Nadine Calloway BSW, RSW, MHS
Chair, NLCSW Board of Directors

