

Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Exam Process

STEP 1

- Complete the NLCSW application process as detailed under the 'Applicants' menu of the NLCSW website. If initial registration requirements are met, an approval to write the appropriate ASWB exam will be issued.

STEP 2

- After receiving approval from NLCSW to write the exam, register and pay the required exam fee through ASWB - <https://www.aswb.org/exam/aswbcentral/>

STEP 3

- Proceed to schedule the exam at a Pearson Vue test centre - <https://www.aswb.org/exam/aswbcentral/>

- The exam fee is $230 US and paid directly to ASWB.
- An exam guide and online practice test are available for purchase from ASWB.
- Each ASWB exam contains multiple-choice questions designed to measure minimum competencies required for social work practice at the candidate's practice level (e.g. BSW or MSW).
- A candidate has 4 hours to complete the exam.
- The ASWB exam can be written at any approved Pearson Vue test centre worldwide. The approved site in NL is located at 235 Water Street, St. John's, NL.
